INVESTIGATION:

On 12 June 2012, Sergeant Michael BARZ #2625 assigned log #1054478 to the Reporting Detective. The case involved a Narcotic Section wire tap being conducted by an undercover Chicago Police Officer. Sergeant Nelson PEREZ #910 of the Narcotic Section initiated the Log Investigation but requested time for the completion of the Narcotic Section wire tap/investigation before the Bureau of Internal Affairs began its Log Investigation. This request was granted by the Bureau of Internal Affairs for the safety of the undercover Chicago Police Officers of the Narcotics Section involved in the wire tap/investigation.

Attachment 4

A Confidential Investigation Request was initiated by Sergeant Nelson PEREZ #910. PEREZ stated in his Initiation Report that a Confidential Informant had provided information that Chicago Police Officer Jeremy ANDERSON #7268 and his partner were involved with a target of a Narcotic Investigation. The Confidential Informant alleged that both officers conducted "drug runs" for a major narcotic supplier. According to the report an informant related that the officers were partners assigned to the 23rd District Burglary Team. A name and description of the second accused given by the informant was "GEORGE" or "CAESAR, JAVIER", M/4/31-35 year of age unknown height, weight, hair color.

Attachment 4

The Reporting Detective obtained the A&A sheets and learned that Chicago Police Officer Jeremy ANDERSON was assigned to the 019th District Chicago Police Burglary Team. The Confidential Informant named the second officer as "George/Caesar, Javier". The Confidential Informant stated "George" was the regular partner of ANDERSON. The A&A sheets listed George PAPPONE as ANDERSON's partner. However Chicago Police Officer George PAPPONE was not named as an accused. The Description given by the C/I to Sergeant PEREZ did not match the description of Chicago Police Officer PAPONE listed on the Data Warehouse personnel sheet. Furthermore the C/I was unclear as to Chicago Police Officer ANDERSON's partner.

Attachment 4

On 21 April 2015, the Reporting Detective spoke with Sergeant Nelson PEREZ #910 by phone in regards to Log #1054478. PEREZ is the witness in regards to Log #1054478. Verification was made that the Narcotic Section Investigation was completed. PEREZ reiterated by a phone call to the Reporting Detective that he received information from a Confidential Informant that two Chicago Police Officers, Jeremy ANDERSON and "George" were involved with a target of a narcotic investigation. The Confidential Informant related to PEREZ that the officers were allegedly conducting "Drug Runs" for a major narcotic supplier.

PEREZ further related to the Reporting Detective that while he was monitoring a narcotic wire tap, he overheard a target of the narcotic investigation tell another individual on the wire tap that, "Jeremy knows what I do." However Sergeant

PEREZ was not able to recall in what context this statement referencing “Jeremy was made”.

Attachment 5

PEREZ stated after receiving the information from the Confidential Informant and hearing on the wire tap, “Jeremy knows what I do”, he contacted the Bureau of Internal Affairs to initiate a Log Number.

Attachment 5

PEREZ stated that the above narcotic investigation resulted in numerous arrests with the target of the investigation also being arrested. PEREZ stated that Chicago Police Officer Jeremy ANDERSON was not arrested nor was he observed during the course of the narcotic investigation conducting any “Drug Runs”. PEREZ stated the target of the narcotic investigation was subsequently arrested on another narcotic investigation and is currently incarcerated in the Illinois Department of Corrections.

Attachment 5

PEREZ stated during the narcotic investigation, the Confidential Informant related to him that his identity had been compromised through the Chicago Police Department’s investigation. PEREZ stated the Confidential Informant stated he did not want to cooperate with the Chicago Police in regards to this investigation, despite numerous attempts being made by PEREZ. PEREZ stated the Confidential Informant has not contacted PEREZ nor answered any phone calls. PEREZ stated he has left numerous messages for the Confidential Informant and attempted to locate the Confidential Informant with negative results.

Attachment 5

On 17 July 2015, Sergeant PEREZ was interviewed by the Reporting Detective as a witness to give a Formal Statement. During the statement Sergeant PEREZ stated that a C/I had given him information that two Chicago Police Officers were acting as security and doing drug runs for a target of his wire tap. Sergeant PEREZ related he and Tony RAMIREZ #10974 later met with the informant who provided the name of one of the accused and a description of the other alleged Chicago Police Officer.

Attachment 10

Sergeant PEREZ clarified during his statement that was not sure if he monitored the wire that mentioned Police Officer Jeremy ANDERSON and denied transcribing the tape. Sergeant PEREZ further explained he could not remember who informed him of ANDERSON being mentioned on the wire tap.

Attachment 10

Sergeant PEREZ was asked if during any surveillance if either accused member was observed with the target of the wire. Sergeant PEREZ denied seeing the target and the accused Chicago Police Officers together.

Attachment 10

Sergeant PEREZ was asked if the informant was a registered informant. Sergeant PEREZ stated he was not sure. Sergeant PEREZ further stated he attempted to contact the C/I several times but with negative results after the Narcotic Investigation had been completed.

Attachment 10

The Reporting Detective investigation revealed a Confidential Informant made several criminal allegations in regards to misconduct by two Chicago Police Officers. Although these allegations were criminal in nature, the Confidential Informant was not available and could not give specific accounts of the Chicago Police Officer's misconduct. Several attempts to locate the Confidential Informant were made but he could not be located by Sergeant PEREZ nor would he answer or return any phone calls made to him. The Reporting Detective also learned during the Formal Interview conducted with PEREZ, that the Chicago Police Department was instructed by State's Attorney's Office not to use the Confidential Informant due to him becoming a violator on the wire tap.

Without the cooperation of the Confidential Informant, the lack of verifiable objective evidence and in the absence of a signed Sworn Affidavit, this investigation cannot continue. It is therefore requested that this case be CLOSED-NO CONVERSION.
